My goals for networking:

When you meet someone, what is the one thing you hope they will remember about you?

The day after you meet someone, what would you like to say to them to remind them who you are and what you do?

Sharing is one the the best ways to develop a relationship. People are more likely to remember you for what you share than almost anything else. What would you like to share and be remember for? This does not have to be about your business, in fact it is better if it is not.

What would you like most people you come in contact to know about you that relates to your work?
